OSBORN, Assistant United States Attorney, 20 appeared before the Court on August 4, 2017, for a status hearing. The parties represented that the 21 grand jury had just returned a superseding indictment, that the government would be providing 22 discovery relevant to that charge shortly, and that counsel for defendant would need time to review the 23 discovery and the evidence obtained through the government's forensic examination of items seized 24 from defendant. 25 The matter was continued to October 13, 2017, at 9:30 a.m. to set further proceedings. Counsel 26 for the defendant requested that time be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act between August 4, 2017, 27 and October 13, 2017, to review the discovery and to conduct necessary investigation. The government had no objection to excluding time.

Based upon the representation of counsel and for good cause shown, the Court finds that failing to exclude the time between August 4, 2017, and October 13, 2017, would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Court further finds that the ends of justice served by excluding the time between August 4, 2017, and October 13, 2017, from computation under the Speedy Trial Act outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the time between August 4, 2017, and October 13, 2017, shall be excluded from computation under the Speedy Trial Act. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B)(iv).

DATED: August 7, 2017

HONORABLE JON S. TIGAR
United States District Court Judge
